Mr. J. Conrad Allen served WCHS from 1951-1982.

HERE'S TO THE MAN . . .

J. Conrad Allen graduated from Wayne City High School in 1944. After seven years away at college and in the United States Army, he returned to Wayne City in pursuit of his teaching career. This career has lasted 31 years and has taken Mr. Allen through various duties within the educational boundaries. He was a coach for 11 years, a principal for 16 years, an athletic director for 4 years, and a counselor for 4 years. For his 31 years of service to Wayne City High School, this yearbook is dedicated to Mr. J. Conrad Allen.

WCHS is a part of Mr. Allen and Mr. Allen is definitely a part of WCHS. As founder of the Wayne City Holiday Tournament, Mr. Allen has developed the tournament to its present state-wide fame. Wayne City's red and black pumps through his veins, giving him the life and energy to stand behind the school that he loves, no matter what the cost. As Shakespeare said, "He was a man, take him for all in all, we shall not look upon his like again."

Do you know
where you're goin' to?

Do you like the things that life is showin' you?

Where are you goin' to,

Do you know?

SENIORS CLOSED DOORS ON HIGH SCHOOL YEARS

The Seniors of 1982 plunged themselves into money-making projects. In the fall, senior boys competed against senior girls at Bean Days. The girls had a lemon-aid and hot dog stand while the boys had a soda stand. The girls won the contest by making more money than the boys.

At the Holiday Tournament, the seniors sold raffles on $82 worth of gas and took donations on tournament programs. They made a total of $417.15 at the tournament.

In the spring, the class sponsored a chili supper and boys-faculty basketball game.

Along with money-making projects, many of the seniors were involved in the Co-Op program. In this program, 13 seniors attended classes for half a day and worked at a job the other half.

1) In a corner of the band room, Vickie Crask practiced her trumpet. 2) Tracy Taylor (president), Roger Loker (vice-president), LaDonna Wallace (secretary), and Deane Siedler (treasurer), guided the Senior Class through their last year of school.

JUNIORS SPONSORED TALENT SHOW

At the Holiday Tournament, the juniors sold raffle tickets on an Atari video game and made less than $100 for the treasury.

They also sponsored a spring talent show which included tumbling, singing, and dancing.

1) Scott Clark was deep in thought about cheering in a skit at a Pep Club assembly. 2) Misti Meyers (president), Kim Shell (vice-president), Carla Garner (secretary), and Justine Holleman (treasurer), were the leaders of the Junior Class.

SOPHOMORES CHOSE NOT TO HAVE CLASS PARTY

FRESHMEN HAD LARGEST CLASS ENROLLMENT

There were 93 freshmen enrolled in WCHS this year, which made them the largest class in school

The freshmen sold candy bars at the Holiday Tournament with the help of their sponsors, Dean Jackson and Jim Elliott. They decided to save the profit for their oncoming years

1) Crystal Thomason won first place in the FHA initiation contest. 2) Shari Bordas (president), Deann Braddock (vice-president), Marlene Koker (secretary), and Kyle Brown (treasurer), accepted the duties of Freshmen Class officers

Volleyball Team Won District Tourney

The volleyball team saw hours of hard work pay off by winning the conference title and every tournament entered but the State Tourney

The J.V. squad finished runner-up in the conference by one match.

The varsity will have four returning starters as two star players, Noelene Crocker and Susan Austin graduated this year. Things look high for the Lady Indians next year.

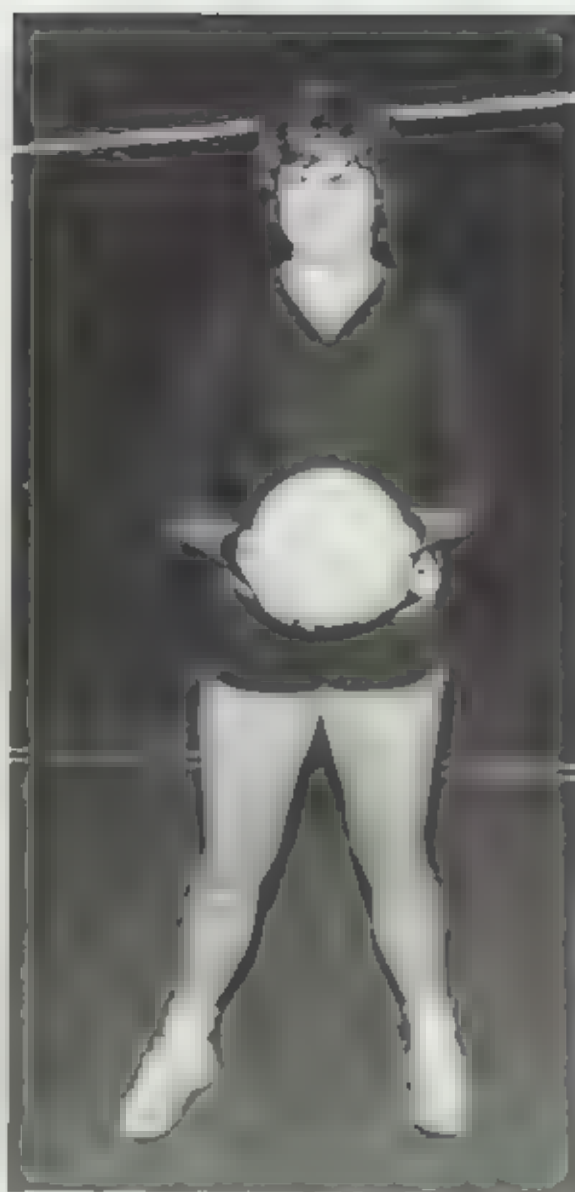

1) Lisa Green, Junior, finished her first year on the varsity squad as a spiker. 2) Earning her third varsity letter was Senior Noelene Crocker who was one of the spikers for the team. 3) Starting her second year on the varsity squad as a setter was Sophomore Sara Karcher. 4) Junior Ellen Karcher finished her third year on the varsity squad as one of the team's spikers. 5) Senior Susan Austin ended her career with two varsity letters as a setter for the Indians. 6) Finishing her second year on the varsity squad as a spiker was Junior Carla Garner.

Indians Finished With Even Seasons

With the start of school, the baseball team took to the field against the Quad County Conference. When the fall season had ended, Coach Gene Johnson's team looked back on a 5-5 record.

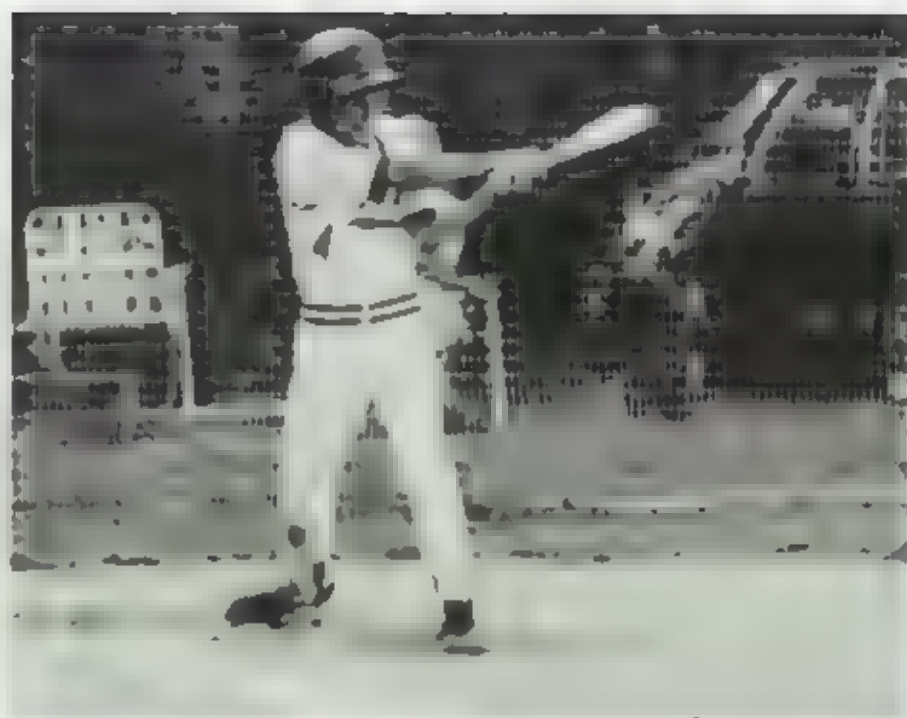

After the winter rest, the Baseball Indians resumed play in new suits. The change in season and attire were of no assistance to the team, though. After playing both conference and non-conference foes, the team closed the spring with another 5-5 record.

In the Regional Tournament, the Indians defeated Allendale in their first game, but was eliminated by the Flora Wolves.

Lady Indians Improved Their Record

The Lady Indians in their third year of competition improved on their previous record of 8-8 last year, and finished the 1981-82 year with an improved 14-6 record.

The Lady Indians, though small in height against several teams, were big in competitiveness. Their hustle and desire kept them in many games against bigger teams.

Highlights of the year were a second place finish in the Woodlawn Round Robin Tournament, a double overtime victory at Clay City, and a two-point loss to Benton in the Regional finals.

Varsity Had Winning Season With 22-4 Record

The 1981-82 Indians had a successful campaign under first year coach, Jerry Wilson. The Indians compiled a 22-4 overall record and a perfect slate of 10-0 in conference action.

The team was dominated by seven seniors. Leading the way was Travis Helm, Roger Loker, and Clayton Withrow who made the WC Holiday Tourney team. Clayton Withrow and Travis Helm also made the all-conference team, while Travis Helm, for the second year, made the Carmi Invitational team and was chosen for the all-Southern Illinois team. Mark Solomon filled in the other guard position, while Junior Scott Clark rounded out the starting five. Strong performances off the bench were recorded by Brent Brookman, Shawn Allen, and Charles Witter.

Indians Won Fifth Straight Conference Tourney

The freshman basketball team, coached by Stan Blank, won third place in the Waltonville Freshman Tournament — they drew a bye in the first round, lost to a tough Waltonville team, 43-51, and beat Woodlawn in the third place game, 36-30.

With the help of Sophomores David Medder, Craig Fenton, Rusty Holmes, Pete Downey, Joe Bernard, and LaMar Choate, the freshman-sophomore team dominated the Quad-County Conference Tournament. They beat Allendale, 51-33, a tough Grayville team, 51-47, and blew out Waltonville, 75-54, to reign the conference champs for the fifth consecutive year.

The freshmen concluded their season with 18 wins 8 losses. Jeff Thompson led the freshman Indians with 234 total points, followed closely by Keith Simpson with 210 points.

Lady Indians Were "Sweet Sixteen"

The Wayne City softball team caught the softball fever and in so doing captured themselves a place in the record book at WCHS.

By going as far as winning the first game in the sectionals, the team tied the WCHS record. Because Illinois Softball doesn't have super-sectionals, winning the first game in sectionals put them into the "Sweet Sixteen", which was the best ever in WCHS history. Sweet Sixteen was extra delicious to the team because Illinois softball does not have A or AA; it is all one class.

Cheerleaders Toiled for a Successful Year

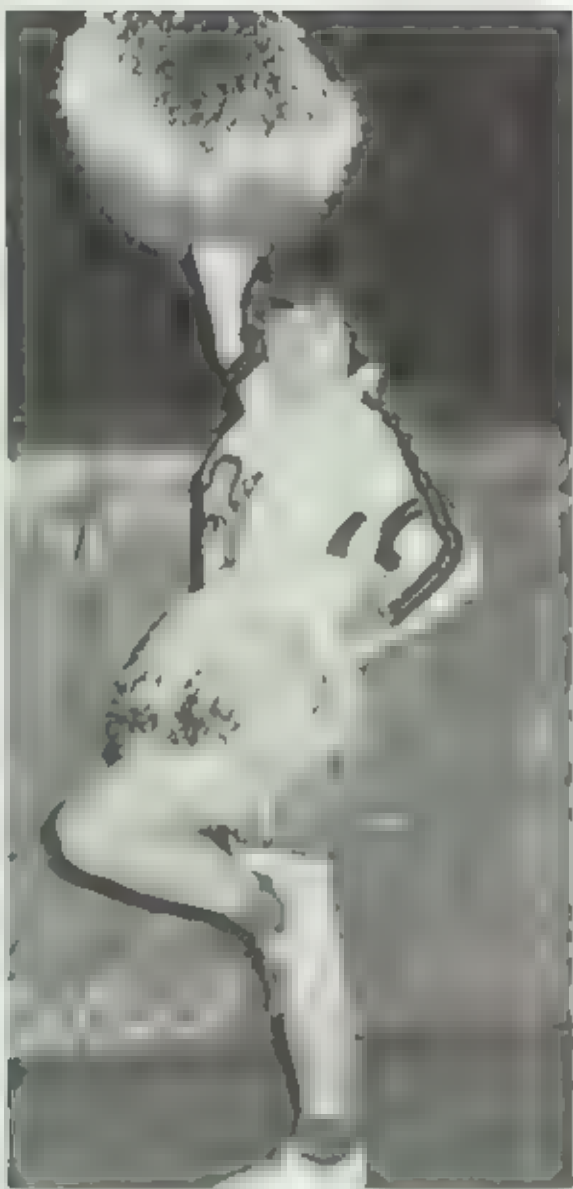

The cheerleaders spent part of their summer preparing for the upcoming year. They sold tumbler cups, had two car washes, and had a slave day. With the earned funds the cheerleaders paid the expense for 11 girls to go to Vincennes University Cheerleading Camp and for their cheerleading sweaters.

The varsity squad helped to cheer the Indians basketball team on to being Quad County and Holiday Tournament Champs.

1) Senior Nancy Peddicord, completed her fourth and final year as a cheerleader. 2) Noelene Crocker, Senior, earned her fourth letter as a cheerleader. 3) Junior Carla Garner completed her third year as a cheerleader for the Indians. 4) Justine Holleman, Junior, earned her third letter. 5) Michelle Scarbrough finished her Senior year with one letter. 6) Jaimette Mantoan, Junior, backed the Indians for her second year.

JV Cheerleaders Supported Team

The junior varsity cheerleaders not only worked side by side with the varsity on the fund raisers and at camp, but they also helped to get the fans going during varsity games.

The primary duty, though, of the junior varsity squad was to rally the junior varsity basketball team. With the aid of mascot Misti Meyers, the squad was triumphant in their task when the junior varsity finished the season with a perfect record.

Ten Indians Made All-Conference

In the course of the school year, Wayne City was proud to have players in every possible sport to make the Quad County All-Conference team.

In the fall, Pete Downey and Travis Helm were named to the baseball All-Conference team, while Noelene Crocker, Susan Austin, Sara Karcher, Ellen Karcher, and Carla Garner were selected for the volleyball team. After the close of the basketball season it was announced that Travis Helm and Clayton Withrow had made the basketball All-Conference team. In the spring, Noelene Crocker, Beth Slover, Sara Karcher, Lisa Green, and Ellen Karcher were honored as softball All-Conference team members.

Beta Club Members Engaged in Several Activities

The Beta Club set their sights on several activities in 1981-82.

The chapter went trick-or-treating for UNICEF, collecting approximately $200 for the charity.

During National Education Week the Betas served breakfast to the faculty. In November the formal initiation of 11 new members was held.

The club sold cheese and sausage to help their treasury. Selling popcorn, sodas, and candy at the basketball games also helped to sweeten the Beta's funds. An estimated $50 was made selling carnations and Val-o-grams for Valentine's Day.

National Beta Club Week was celebrated with daily activities. Such activities were giving apples to the faculty, a Teacher of the Year Award, and a pie in the face competition.

Betas attended the state convention in Springfield. Junior Terry Koker ran for the State Beta Club Presidency with the campaign slogan KOKER Is It!

Students Learned Job Skills in Co-Op Class

The Wayne City Co-op students attend a Co-op class every morning. In class they are taught how to get along with others while they are working, to respect fellow employees and employers, job obtaining skills and how to handle their money properly. In the afternoon these students work at various jobs in this and surrounding communities

The students have a cookout each year. They also have a dinner at Two Tonys for the employees, employers, parents, and school administration

As money raising projects, the students sponsored a "March Movie Madness" and a "Car Bash."

FFA Initiated Thirteen New Members

There were 37 active members in FFA. In the fall 13 greenhands were initiated into the club.

The Exterminators beat the Bird Swatters in the team pest contest 19,205 to 12,275. Terry Grote was the high point winner with 6,960.

Some activities members enjoyed were a wagon backing contest, a chili supper, a skating party with the FHA, and a parent/member banquet

Members sold farm magazines, peanuts and beef jerky and garden seeds for money-making projects

1) Janice Bennett, the only girl FFA member, placed second in the Pest Control Contest

FHA Had a Membership of 92 Girls

The membership of FHA was the largest ever this year with 92 members. They enjoyed a wiener roast in the fall for new initiates; the Tiny Tots party, progressive dinner and gift exchange at Christmas; a shopping trip to St. Clair Square; and a skating party with the FFA. Kit sales were again a success.

Secret Sister Week was observed in February. About 120 attended the Mother-Daughter Banquet in May. A party was held at the end of school honoring those who had sufficient points.

Library Helpers Performed Many Different Tasks

A school library is not all checking books in and out. Helpers did many different things such as: get mail and packages from the post office; carry audio-visual materials back and forth from the unit office as needed by the grade schools; check in audiovisual materials and put away; put newspapers on the reading sticks daily; go after students who have overdue books; mend books; shelve books; stamp new books; count the circulation of books, magazines and vertical files and keep a daily record.

They also assist other students in checking out materials; put magazines away; make small audiovisual equipment repairs; take inventory of books, supplies, equipments; file catalog cards for new books added; withdraw card sets for books withdrawn, lost, or that disappear.

The library spends part of its budget each year to replace paperback books that disappear — a phenomenon the librarian wishes students would help eliminate.

Terry Koker Won MVP in Scholastic Bowl

The 1981-82 Scholastic Bowl season started with an October 19 meet at Webber Township High School where Wayne City finished third. Terry Koker was named MVP.

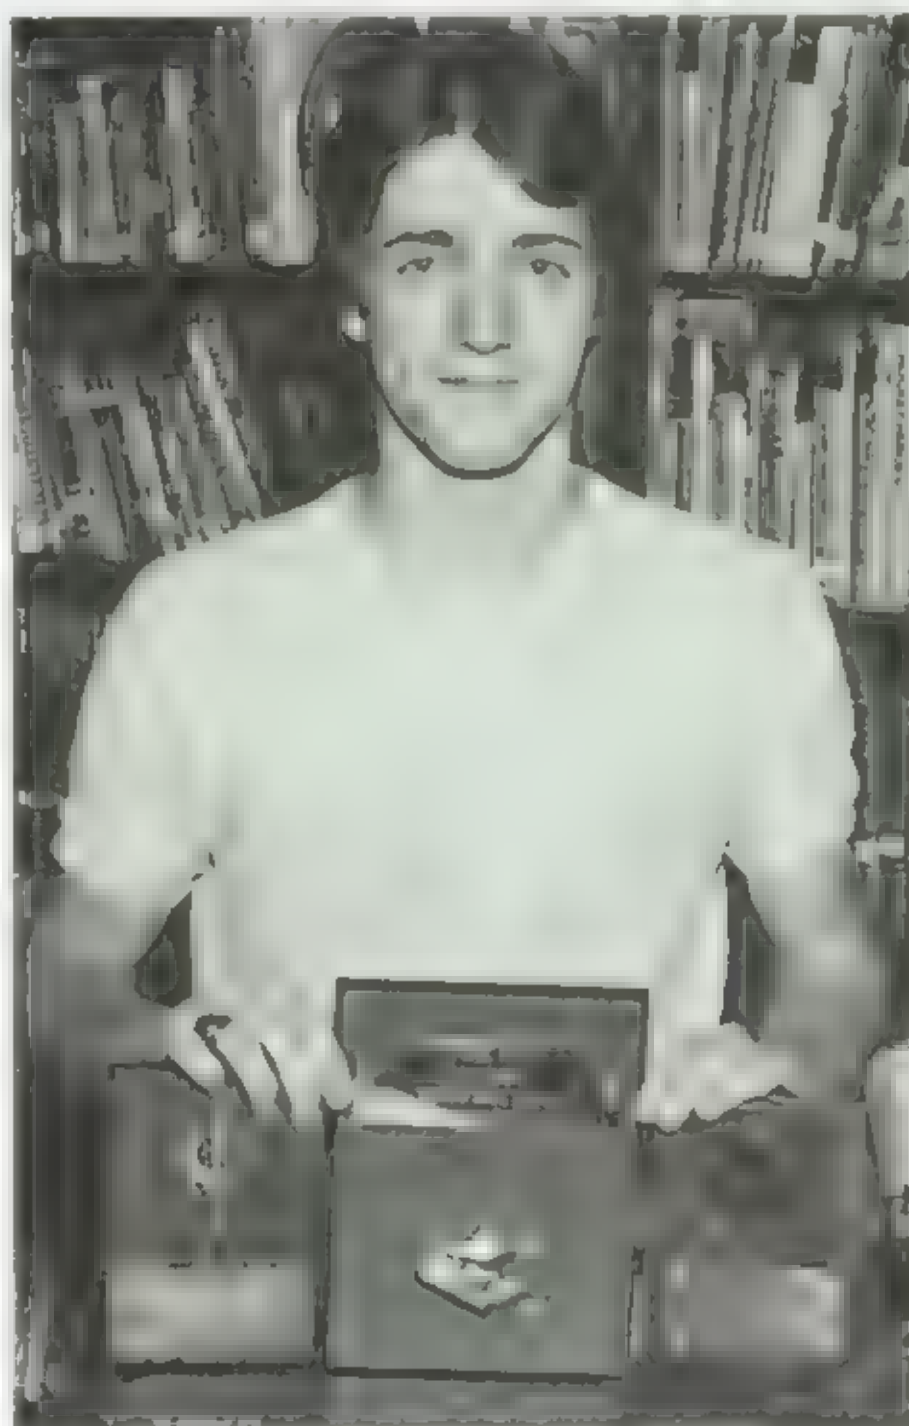

On November 2 Wayne City traveled to Waltonville where the team placed first, and Terry Koker again received the MVP award.

November 23 saw Wayne City bow out in the first round of a single elimination tournament at McLeansboro with a loss to Centralia.

The team left Wayne City at 6:15 a.m. on December 5 for an all day nine-team round robin at Sullivan. The team finished the day with a 3-5 record. Terry Koker made the all-tournament team for the second year in a row. He answered 31 toss-ups correctly for second place in the individual honors.

After the Sullivan meet, Wayne City's overall record stood at 5-7. The team hoped to improve its record by competing in three scheduled spring meets.

1) Terry Koker racked up awards in scholastic bowl competition as most valuable player

Rehearsals Began at 7:30 a.m. for Swing Choir

Ten girls under the direction of Ms. Christy Dunnigan made up the Swing Choir. These dedicated girls started rehearsals two weeks before the start of school, so they would be ready for the Bean Day Variety Show.

Two mornings a week students entering the school building would hear the strains of "Peppermint Twist" or "Li'l Liza Jane" as the Swing Choir rehearsed for Christmas parties, Heart Fund Benefits, the Junior Class Talent Show, and a Mother's Day program. These girls came at 7:30 to do their practice.

Warwhoop Won Blue Banner at SISPA

The Warwhoop staff set their goal in September for an error-free issue. With this goal in mind, the staff worked diligently each month to make the Warwhoop the best that it could be. Although an error-free issue was never achieved, the staff's journalistic slaving paid off when they entered in the SISPA competition.

At the SISPA spring conference in Carbondale, the Warwhoop was awarded the Blue Banner of excellence for the eleventh year. Individual awards were obtained by Ellen Karcher, a second for Best Original Art, and an honorable mention for Best Cartoon, Sharon Beasley, a third for Best Humorous Column; Shawn Allen, an honorable mention for Best Sports Column; and LaDonna Wallace, an honorable mention for Best Editorial.

History Was Recorded by Yearbook Staff

From September to June, the yearbook staff combined talents and indulged in the recording of WCHS history for 1981-1982.

Copyblock was written and typed, and pictures were flashed and developed. Editors Noelene Crocker and Susan Austin spent days, evenings, and weekends, not to mention part of their summer vacations, drawing out pages and putting it all together. By the end of June, Noelene and Susan breathed a sigh of relief and waved good-bye as they sent the final product off to the publishers and anxiously awaited the arrival of Chieftain 1982.

Julie Braddock was crowned the new 1981-82 Bean Queen by retiring Queen Terri Taylor.

The Bean Day celebration was again expanded to a full week. The schedule of events featured the "Best Friend of Charleston" the first locomotive built in America for regular service on a railroad. Other happenings during the week included a men's softball tournament, bicycle races, Championship Wrestling, and an Arts and Craft Show.

Saturday morning a large crowd was present for the Annual Bean Days Parade. The Junior Class, the WCHS band and the teachers were the only organizations from the high school to enter floats. Activities included in Saturday's entertainment and enjoyment were ham and beans, a flea market, tractor pull, greased pig contest and a puppet show. Concluding the week of celebration was a Variety Show held at the high school.

1) Wayne City band members nervously awaited the start of the Bean Day Parade. 2) The junior float exemplified the Bean Day theme "The Way We Were." 3) Wayne City High School librarian, Vera Whiteside, competed in the Bean Day marathon.

Tracy and Susan Were Honored at Skating Party

In honor of their annual get-together, the FHA and FFA sponsored a skating party for their members at the Singing Wheels Skating Rink. Members skated to the music and played skating games.

Susan Austin was chosen FHA queen and was presented with an identification bracelet by the FFA chapter. Tracy Taylor was selected as FFA king and was given an engraved dog tag by the FHA chapter.

1) Tracy Bennett and date rested their wheels while chatting with Bryan Bennett and Tracy Taylor. 2) Susan Austin and Tracy Taylor were recognized as FHA queen and FFA king at the skating party. 3) Trisha Richardson tried her wheels at limbo.

Students Were Entertained by Assemblies

Throughout the school year, the students of Unit #100 watched the calendar, awaiting the days of assemblies. Not only did the assemblies mean getting out of class, but they also provided amusement and enjoyment.

The student audience clapped to the music of the Union Jacks, gasped at the hot dog frisbee stunts of the Jammers, and laughed with the exciting magician Dick Oslund

An extra treat was the witnessing of the Beta Club's Pie-in-the-face contest announcement. The audience cheered on as Staci Allen smashed winner Dan Allen with the prize pie

Roger and Patty Reigned as King and Queen

Excitement and nervousness scurried through the air as the 1982 Prom candidates and attendants took their places among the burgandy and gray of the stage. After weeks of diligent and careful planning, prom night had finally arrived.

A hush fell over the audience as Roger Loker and Patty Barbee were crowned king and queen. Patty received her tiara and flowers from the retiring queen, Ellen Shreve. Retiring king, Joey Slover, presented Roger with his crown. King Roger and Queen Patty then danced to the prom theme song, "Leather and Lace." Later in the song, they were joined by the rest of the court.

A total of ten seniors were nominated as king and queen candidates. Also a part of the prom court were two queen attendants and two king attendants from each class. The flowergirl was Lori Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Thompson, and her escort and crownbearer was Jeremy Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Green.

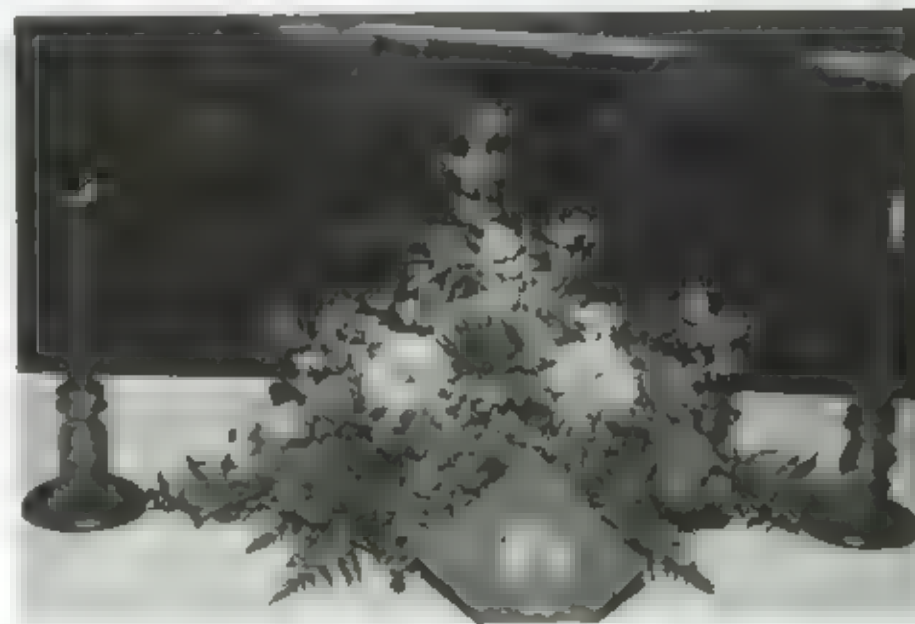

Music for the evening was provided by radio station WCIL of Carbondale. Refreshments were served throughout the evening.

Miss Christy Dunnigan, Ms. Peggy Long, and Mr. Dan Allen were in charge of the prom activities for this year.

1) Jeremy Green and Lori Wilson served as crownbearer and flowergirl. 2) Flowers were as common a sight as the prom colors of burgandy and gray throughout the evening. 3) Concluding the ceremony was the presentation of the 1982 Spring Prom Court.

Athletic Banquet Had Two Standing Ovations

On a hot May evening, the Wayne City athletes gathered in the gym for the annual banquet. Applause echoed throughout the entire evening as awards were presented for cheerleading, volleyball, softball, basketball, baseball, and track.

Mrs. Clark was creative in her award-giving by linking each softball player with a particular name of a candy bar.

Those attending rose twice for two standing ovations. The first time was for the announcement of the retiring of Travis Helm's basketball number. The second was for the presentation of a plaque to retiring athletic director, Conrad Allen.

1) Sara Karcher was chosen as one of the five to make the all-conference volleyball team. 2) Doug Collins accepted his varsity letter in baseball from Coach Gene Johnson. 3) Varsity basketball players Misti Meyers, LaDonna Wallace, and Susan Austin looked on as Vonda Newman got into the line-up. 4.) Jimmy Goldman Featured on "That's Incredible"

Jimmy Goldman, a sophomore, was on a special "That's Incredible" which featured incredible kids. A segment of the show called, "Armless Ace" featured the various skills of Jimmy, who was born without arms. Angie Cates, a junior, was impressed with Jimmy and wrote to "That's Incredible" about him.

Jimmy has captured the attention of many with the wide range of skills he performs. His skills include such things as: driving his truck, baiting a fish hook, loading and shooting a gun, playing cards, and playing pool. During his freshman year he was given a chance to demonstrate his pool skills in a game against Minnesota f ats.

The segment "Armless Ace" featured Jimmy in a demonstration of playing softball in which he pitched and fielded grounders with his feet.

Although Jimmy was born without arms, he doesn't consider himself handicapped, and the kids at WCHS don't think of him as being handicapped either.

Travis Helm Broke School Record

After Travis Helm made a successful splash in grade school basketball, many people were anxious to see if he would be able to make the transfer to high school basketball. Travis proved himself quite capable. Throughout his freshman year, he was seen as a starter on the varsity team. For the next four years, Travis was to amaze the fans of the Wayne City Indians as well as all of Southern Illinois.

At the close of his high school career, Travis had collected numerous basketball awards — all-conference all four years; All-State Honorable Mention, Wayne City's Rebounding Award and WC Holiday Tournament Team his sophomore year; All-State Honorable Mention, Wayne City's Rebounding Award and WC Holiday Tournament Team, All-Southern Illinois Third Team, Carmi Tournament Team, and Quad County Player of the Year his junior year; WC Holiday Tournament Team, Wayne City's Rebounding Award, Free Throw Award, and MVP Award, Carmi Tournament Team, Quad County Player of the Year, All-Southern Illinois Second Team, and Wayne City's Best All-Around Male Athlete of the Year his senior year.

Travis high-lighted his career with a school-record-breaking total of 2003 points in his four years at Wayne City. On March 18, 1982, the Wayne City Unit #100 School Board voted to retire Travis Helm's number 31.

Fourteen Seniors Were Chosen to be the Few and Proud

In exchange for the drive to be the best, fourteen students were proclaimed just that at the Annual Honors Banquet. After the recipients, along with three guests, were treated to a dinner, awards were presented in the areas of education, vocation, and athletics. Following the awards presentation, the guests viewed a slide show starring the honor students which was produced by Witter's Studio

Class of 1982 Graduated with 66 Seniors

The day that 66 seniors had looked forward to finally arrived — May 28, 1982 — graduation day

The Seniors marched into the gymnasium to the beat of "Pomp and Circumstance." Principal Mr. O J. Thompson gave medals of meritorious achievement to 14 seniors. Following the presentation of awards, LaDonna Wallace, valedictorian, gave the graduation address. Board President Raymond Hurley presented the class with their diplomas

As the first note of the recessional was heard, the Seniors began to march out of the gym with heads held high, facing forward to a new beginning.

1) Vickie Crask and Roger Hutchcraft anxiously awaited for the procession to begin. 2) Mark Solomon hurriedly slipped into his gown. 3) Steven Walker and Brent Taylor calmly zipped up their gowns. 4) Valedictorian, LaDonna Wallace, gave the graduation address

Do you get
What you're hopin' for,

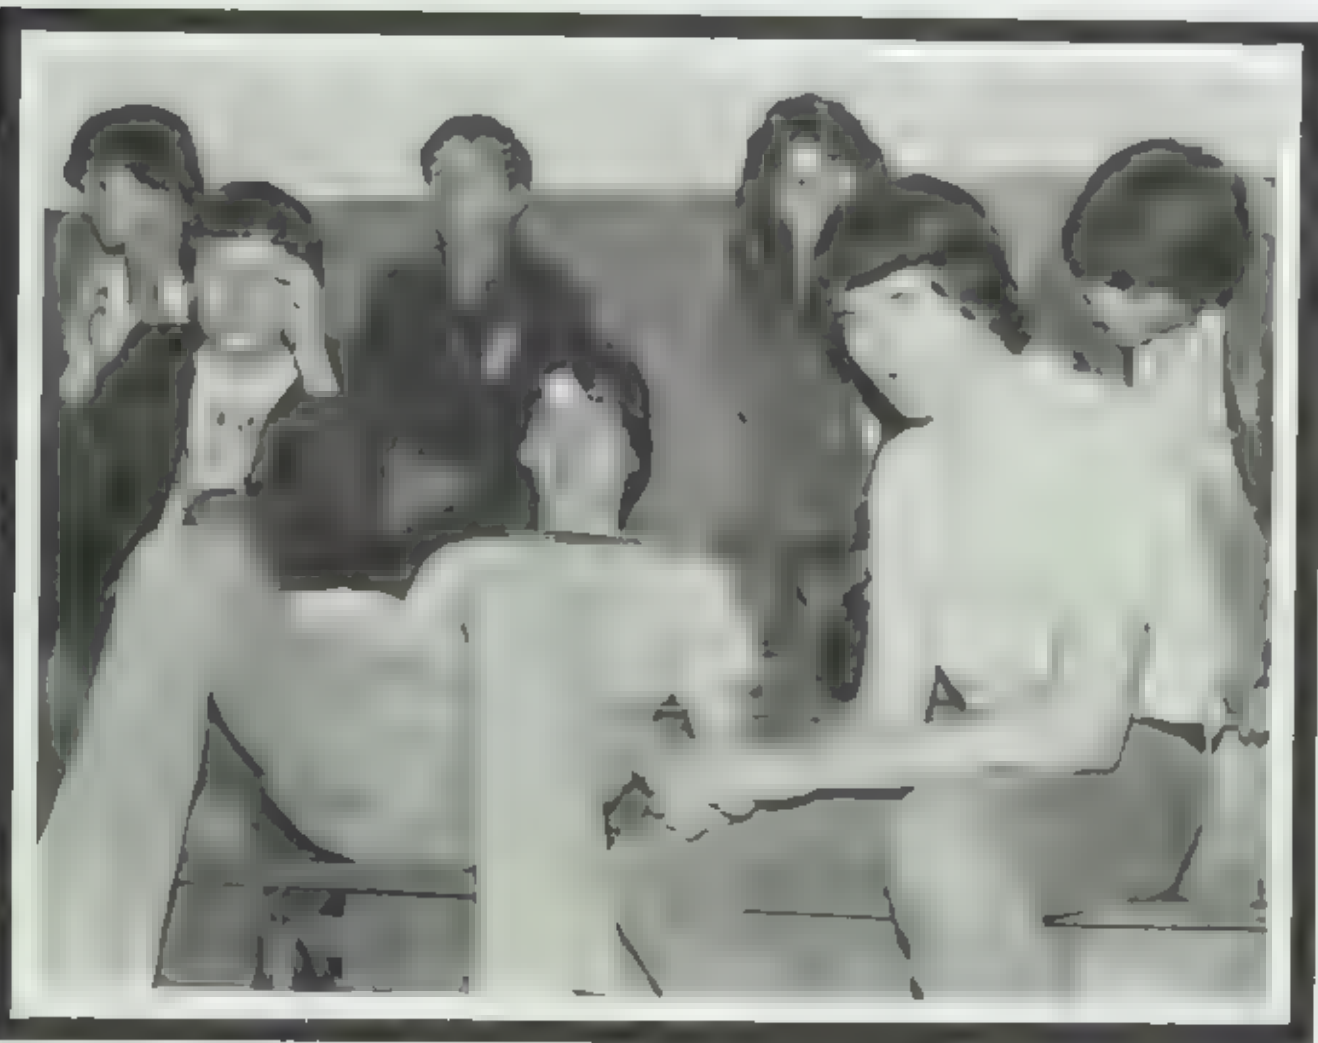

When you look behind you
There's no open door.

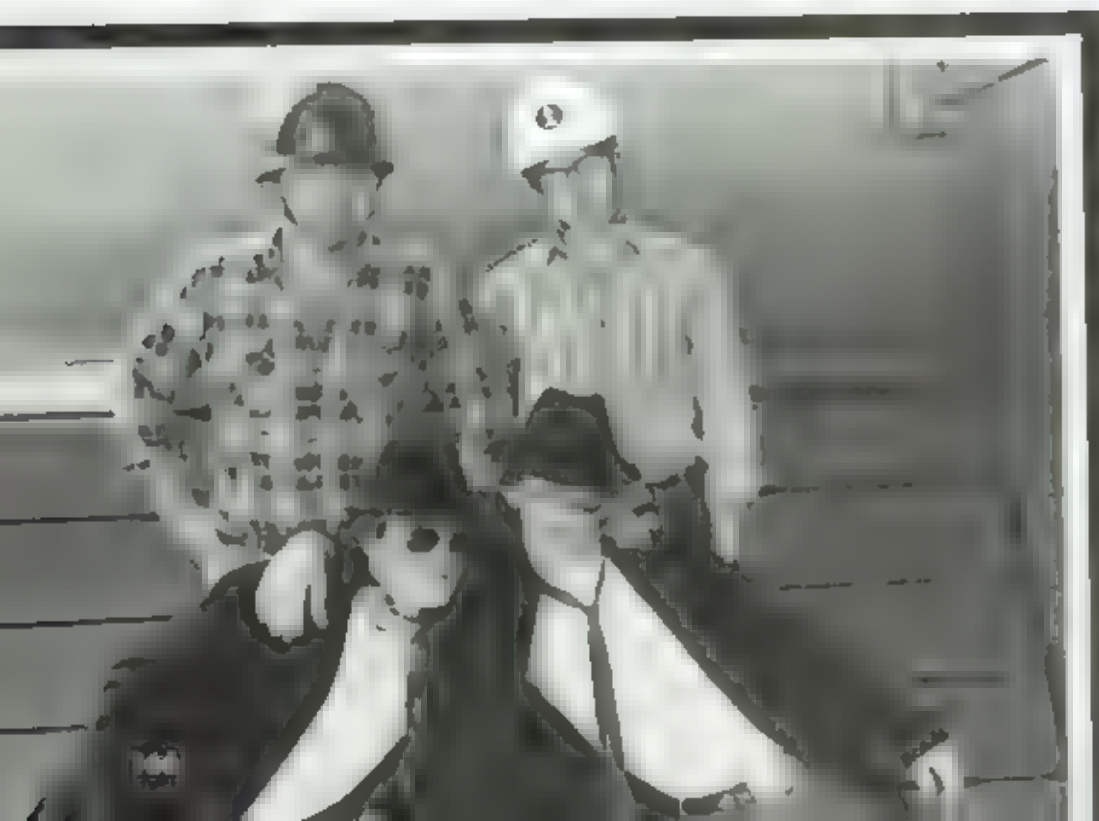

What are you hopin' for,

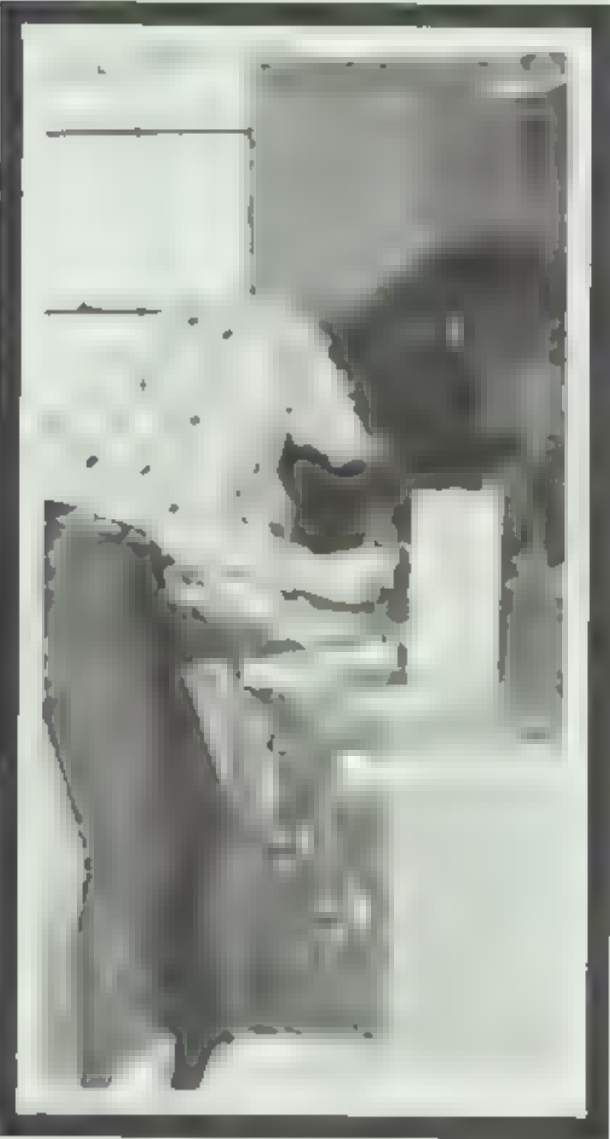

Do you know?

Why must we wait so long
Before we see,

How sad the answers
To those questions can be?

As we come to the close of another chapter of our lives, we would like to thank each and every one of you for giving us the special memories we have of our high school years. It was a privilege to travel down the road of life with all of you, even if it were only for a short while . . .

Susan and Noelene
